presentations in English, Gujarati and Hindi. The fact that young students have definite ideas and vision on this very significant issue facing India today is certainly a cause of delight for us, the academic fraternity.

Prof. Param Pathak from the Department of Gujarati, Dr. P.V. Joshi from the Department of Sanskrit and Dr. (Ms.) Vibha Vaishnav, from the Department of Electronics acted as judges for the event. The first prize went to Saiyad Shabbirhussain from N.S. Patel Arts College, Anand, while the Second Prize was bagged by Swati Bhatt from H. M. Patel Institute of English Training and Research, Vallabh Vidyanagar. The Third prize was secured by Ruchi Bhatt from Institute of Science and Technology for Advanced Studies and Research (ISTAR).

Shri H. M. Patel, the late illustrious Chairman of Charutar Vidya Mandal was the grand finale of the programme, gave a brief outline of the presentations in English, Gujarati and Hindi. The fact that young students have definite ideas and vision on this very significant issue facing India today is certainly a cause of delight for us, the academic fraternity.

BVM Diary

BVM had arranged an orientation program at BVM Auditorium for their students. Principal, Head of all depts, OICS head, and GTU Coordinator were present on the occasion.

Birla Vishvakarma Mahavidyalaya took an initiative to improve the proficiency of their engineering students in communicative English. An Initiative BVM had arranged TWO DAYS Personality Development Workshop. This program was conducted by H.M. Patel Career Development Center.

As an initiative to fill up the gap between academia and industries Birla Vishvakarma Mahavidyalaya (BVM) had arranged an introductory lecture on BVM-INFOSYS Campus Connect Program at BVM auditorium. Campus Connect is an industry-academia partnership initiative launched by INFOSYS. It aims to enhance the education level in Engineering students nationwide and this increase employability of these engineers. It helps partner colleges to groom industry ready engineers. This program was conducted by HR Personnel of INFOSYS. As a part of campus connects BVM is running CAMPUS CONNECT PROGRAMS to make engineers more employable. Twenty faculties from BVM have taken training from INFOSYS to train students for better employability. 69 students have taken this training and around 210 students are about to finish this training. Prof. A. D. Patel and Mr. Pawan Dwivedi coordinated the program.
